THE SECURITY COUNCIL

SC/PS2

The following Presidential Statement was adopted by the Consensus of the Security Council:

The Security Council acknowledges the tenuous situation in Kunduz. We urge all parties involved in the conflict of Kunduz to participate in a twenty four hour cease fire so that negotiations can be resolved on the issue concerning the surrendering of the city to the United Nations. Resolutions are currently proposed that aim to alleviate the tensions. We ask that further resolutions by the Security Council be considered to facilitate the peace process. Therefore, the before mentioned cease fire shall begin upon the adoption of this Statement.
