The Third Committee

- 1 Recalling the Geneva Convention of 1949 and article 38 of the Convention on the Rights of the 2 Child that established the rights and special needs of children,
- 3 Bearing in mind Security Council resolutions 1261 and 1314 that note the implications of the 4 violation of children's rights and its effect on regional and international peace and security,
- 5 Commending the efforts and accomplishments of the Special Representative and Child 6 Protection Advisor programs,
- 7 Recognizing the validity of the Garcia Machel Special Report A/51/306 which asserts that war 8 violates every right of the child,
- 9 Convinced that children are the future leaders of the world and that education is the key to 10 raising diplomatic global citizens,
- 11 Deeply concerned that over 9,600 are killed or maimed by landmines each year, hundreds of 12 thousands of children are utilized as child soldiers, and over 20 million have been displaced by 13 armed conflict,
- 14 Understanding that the necessary financial responsibilities for establishing a safe environment 15 for children can be a large burden for developing countries;
- 16 Realizing that the implementation of regional and international programs for the protection of 17 children requires financial obligations from all member states involved,
- 18 Emphasizing the need for greater global cooperation and in turn increasing the well-being and 19 protection of children worldwide,
- 20 1. Reaffirms its strong commitment to the protection of the rights of children as outlined in

- 21 the Geneva Convention and the Convention on the Rights of the Child;
- 22 2. Encourages Member States that are not party to these conventions to ratify and use them;
- 23 3. Calls upon member states to promote the efforts of the Special Representative and the 24 Child Protection Advisor programs, which are designed to liberate children from 25 dangerous armed conflict situations;
- 26 4. Recommends that all countries consider the Education For All (EFA) movement, an 27 Inter-Governmental Program used to promote the education of children, ensuring their 28 protection in armed conflict;
- 29 5. Promotes the establishment of health facilities, which provide services for children who 30 have been affected by armed conflict;
- 31 6. Encourages member states to acknowledge the importance of the family unit which 32 provides children with the proper emotional, social and physical support needed to 33 flourish in correlation with the standards set by the Convention of the Rights of the 34 Child;
- 35 7. Supports the work of existing organizations striving towards the reintegration and 36 rehabilitation of children who have been affected by armed conflict;
- 37 8. Calls upon member states to assist developing countries in the funding of programs, 38 which work for the protection of the rights of children in the context of war;
- 39 9. Advocates that the use of funding from Non-Governmental Organizations (NGO), in 40 conjunction with the multilateral efforts of the United Nations Development Programme 41 working in partnership with the 5th committee's Advisory Committee on Administrative 42 and Budgetary Questions in a collective effort to enhance programs that create a secure 43 and peaceful environment for children;
- 44 10. Suggests that funds be directed to the works of the Child Protection Advisors and that 45 such funds be provided by NGO's and the private sector and IGO's;
- 46 11. Applauds the efforts of member states in regional and international cooperation 47 concerning the promotion and protection of children affected by armed conflict;
- 48 12. Calls for the designation of the Special Representative for Children in Armed Conflict as 49 a permanent position, as an IGO, in recognition of the severity and pervasiveness of the 50 problem of children in armed conflict;
- 51 13. Calls upon this body to hold the World Summit for Children every five years to 52 reevaluate the Convention on the Rights of Children and, as one of the duties of the 53 Special Representative, to insure that children's issues may regularly receive the 54 attention they deserve.
