SUBMITTED TO: The Historical Security Council

SUBMITTED BY: Panama, Austria, India, Kenya

The Historical Security Council

1 Noting with regret the lack of peaceful resolution in the hostilities between Arab nations
2 and Israel, and the continued violence in these nations,

3
4 Disturbed by the escalating violence in the Middle East, including recent attacks by
5 Egypt and Syria in Israeli occupied territories,

6
7 Keeping in mind the desire to restore peace to the Middle East,

8
9 Regretting Israel's failure to comply with Resolution 242 and rejection of the Jordanian
10 proposal for a semi-autonomous Palestinian state in the occupied West Bank in March,

12 1. Endorses the continued peace talks between Arab nations and Israel to resolve border
13 disputes;

14
15 2. Expresses its hope that a peaceful conclusion will be reached between Israel and Arab 16 nations involved in disputes;

17
18 3. Urges member nations to condemn all violence in the Middle East;

19
20 4. Calls upon all member nations in these regions to continue to provide support to 21 restoring peace in disputed regions;

22
23 5. Demands all parties engaged in this matter to resolve to settle their disputes in a
24 peaceful and civilized manner in line with the principles of the United Nations;

25
26 6. Decides to remain seized on the issue.
