

American Model United Nations

Historical Security Council

Subject: The Situation in the Middle East

The President of the Security Council

The Security Council strongly condemns any acts of unprovoked violence on another body and further condemns any acts of violence on civilian infrastructure at the expense of civilian lives.