

American Model United Nations
Security Council

In the Security Council meeting of November 28, 2006, the President issued the following statement on behalf of the council

The Security Council recognizes the urgency and severity of the continuing violence in the Darfur region and deplores the displacement of civilians and the loss of human life therein.

The Security Council commends any party which seeks to protect civilian life, maintain secure areas and reduce violence in afflicted areas of Darfur and the surrounding area. The Security Council continues to pursue consensus and a solution to this problem while operating within the precedence of pre-existing legislation and the UN charter. The Security Council will remain engaged in this deeply complex issue.
