University of California, San Diego

School of International Relations and Pacific Studies

Apply these Model United Nations experiences to your graduate education!

UC San Diego is a powerful magnet for those seeking a fresh, next-generation approach to education and research and combines an interdisciplinary ethos with a tradition of innovation.

The School of International Relations and Pacific Studies (IR/PS) curriculum blends the best of three professional areas: international relations, public policy, and management.

Masters degree candidates can specialize in one of these tracks:

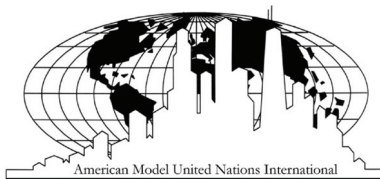

- International Politics
- Public Policy
- International Development and Non-Profit Mgmt
- International Economics
- International Management
- International Environmental Policy
- Self-designed combination

"With the knowledge I acquire in graduate school I can be a significant player in the ongoing debate surrounding the Latin American political economy. The thought of contributing to the political and economical fields of Latin America, be it as one of the country's trade representative or be it as an advisor for economic policy implementation, is exhilarating and IR/PS is a stepping stone to achieve such a goal. - Tamar Benzaken, Manaus Brazil

If your passion is for Asia or the Americas, UC San Diego is where you need to be!

2007 Keynote Speaker Senator Robert Krueger

AMUN is pleased to introduce our keynote speaker, Robert Krueger. Bob Krueger has had a variety of careers. As an academic, he holds a Doctor of Philosophy degree from Oxford University, and served as a Professor of English and as Vice Provost and Dean of the Undergraduate College of Arts and Sciences at Duke University. In the business world, he has done private consulting, served as Chairman of the Board of Comal Hosiery Mills, and as President of Krueger Associates.

Later, in public service, Krueger first served his state as Texas Railroad Commissioner, a statewide elected office responsible for regulating all oil and gas production in Texas. He has also served his nation both in elective and appointive office. He was a Member of Congress in the U.S. House of Representatives and was later U.S. Senator from Texas.

And then as a diplomat, he served as U.S. Ambassador-at-Large and Coordinator for Mexican Affairs, as U.S.

Ambassador to Burundi, and then as U.S. Ambassador to Botswana and Special Representative of the U.S. Secretary of State to the 14 nations of the Southern African Development Community (SADC).

During his service in Burundi, which occurred shortly after the genocide in neighboring Rwanda, Krueger's outspokenness on human rights issues provoked an ambush of his convoy in which two persons were killed and eight grievously wounded, although the gunfire piercing his car missed all passengers.

As a writer he has published a book on English Literature, a variety of articles, and for over four years he wrote a weekly column for several Texas newspapers. His book on living amid genocide in Burundi was released in October, 2007, by the University of Texas Press. In his foreword, Nobel Laureate Desmond Tutu writes, "This is an important book about Africa, but it is not simply the story of Africans or Americans, but of all of us." Paul Rusesabagina, the hero and inspiration for the movie Hotel Rwanda, says, "This book is a wake-up call. Read it. It will humble, teach, and inspire you."

Bob Krueger currently engages in consulting, investing, writing, and public speaking. He lives with his wife and three daughters in his childhood home in New Braunfels, Texas.

PEPPERDINE
UNIVERSITY
School of Public Policy

TAKE THE NEXT STEP

Pepperdine University offers a two-year, full-time Master of Public Policy degree that allows students to strengthen their career development path and prepare for promotion opportunities in the public policy arena.

Students will

- Develop leadership skills to enhance international, government, nonprofit, or private sector careers.
- Receive individual attention in small classes with fellow students who bring a broad range of valuable, real-world experience.
- Attend an academically acclaimed university that attracts preeminent public figures and world leaders. Previous speakers have included Pierre-Richard Prosper, U.S. ambassador-at-large for war crimes; Mikhail Gorbachev, former Soviet Union president; Kim Campbell, former Canadian prime minister; and Michael Dukakis, former Massachusetts governor.

AMUN DELEGATION LOTTERY

A lottery for country assignments for the 2008 AMUN Conference will be held on Monday, 19 November 2007.

Lottery applications are due to the Executive Office in the Ohio room before 10:00 p.m. on Sunday, 18 November 2007. A non-refundable $50 deposit is required for each country at the time of application and will be applied toward the school's 2008 fees. All schools that enter the lottery will be randomly selected for first choice of country assignments. Schools that register for more than one delegation will be placed in the initial lottery for one delegation, and will be assigned additional delegations following the initial lottery.

Fee discount for all Lottery participants!

Any school that registers through the lottery will receive a $5.00 PER DELEGATE DISCOUNT on all delegate fees for the 2008 AMUN Conference. Thus if you bring 5 students or 50, AMUN will take $5.00 off the regular per-delegate fees for each delegate attending. Even if you add additional delegations at a later date, the $5/delegate discount will still apply.

Please note, the dates for next year's AMUN Conference are 22-25 November 2008

Applications for the 2008 AMUN Lottery and 2008 Available Countries List are available at the Conference Services Desk.

Think you can change the world? We do too.

Take the next step with a graduate degree in political science or international affairs from Marquette University.

Degree options

Marquette University's Department of Political Science offers a master of arts degree in political science (POSC) and international affairs (INAF). Joint degree programs are also available; either of these degrees can be combined with a law degree, an M.B.A. or a master's degree in communication.

Rigor and flexibility

Our POSC and INAF graduate programs provide rigorous training in multiple fields in political science, with a research methods requirement and comprehensive exams. They require 30 credits of degree work; even students working part-time can finish within two years. You can take courses related to your field of study in other departments at Marquette, work one-on-one with faculty through independent study courses and transfer graduate credit from other universities. Students also have the opportunity to intern in Washington, D.C. and participate in Marquette's United Nations course in New York.

Top quality faculty

When you study at Marquette, you will work with some of the best faculty in their fields in the country. A ranking of political science faculty research places our department in the top 30 in the U.S., the only department in the top 50 without a Ph.D. program. You will receive significant attention from our faculty. Our master's degree students are our entire focus at the graduate level.

After the degree

Our degrees give students several employment options. Many are admitted into top Ph.D. programs. Others go into government work or put their enhanced skills to work for non-government organizations in the U.S. and abroad.

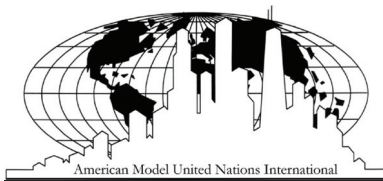

Marquette difference

Marquette is a Catholic, Jesuit university committed to the idea of cura personalis, or care for the whole person. We stress lifelong values and a culture of service to others. If you say "yes!" when asked if you can change the world, please look into our graduate programs — because we think you can too.

Additional information is available on the Web at www.marquette.edu/polisci. We welcome inquiries about our INAF and POSC graduate programs; contact Dr. Lowell Barrington at lowell.barrington@marquette.edu.

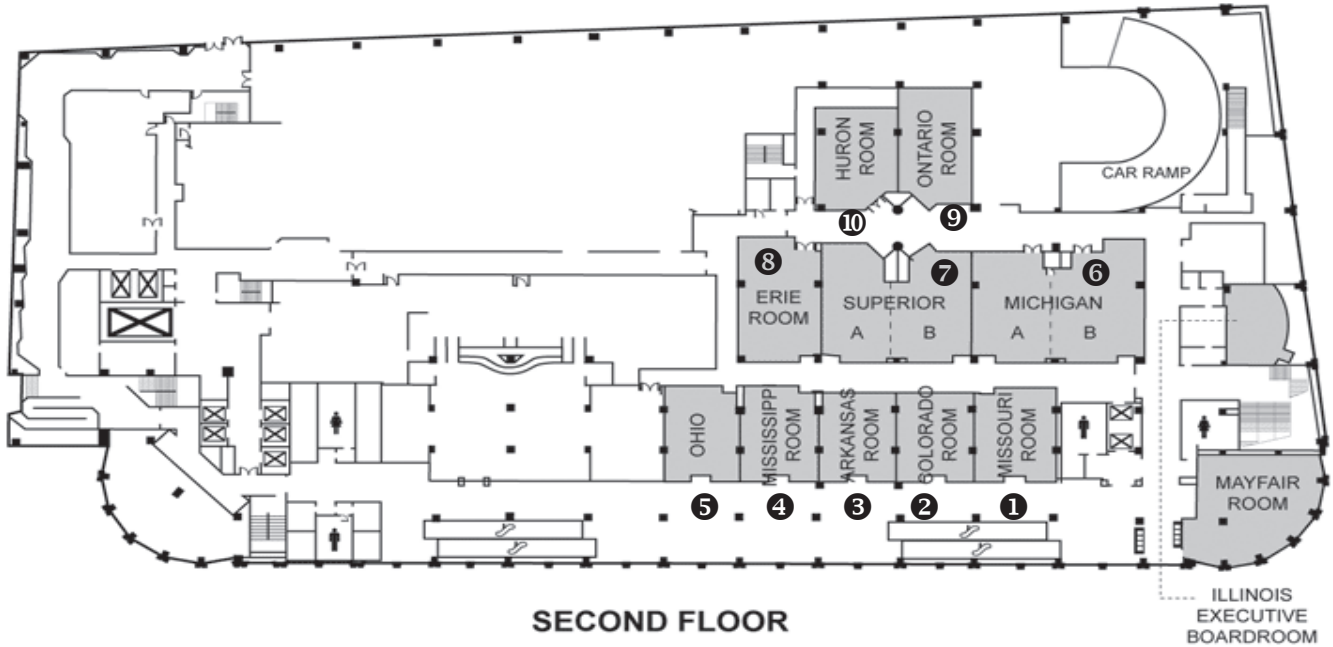

Be The Difference.

WHAT WILL AMUN DISCUSS NEXT YEAR??

There's a lot going on in the world. Of the hundreds of issues the United Nations agenda covers each year, AMUN must decide which topics to discuss over the course of one weekend. Would you like to be a part of this decision making process? Do you have a burning issue that you want to recommend for next year's agenda? Would you like the opportunity to review AMUN's preliminary suggestions and provide feedback? Then come to the Committee on the Agenda meeting and contribute your suggestions for topics to be discussed at the 2008 AMUN Conference!

New Tuition Policies Make ASU More Affordable Than Ever

With a cumulative undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or higher, residents of any U.S. state or territory qualify for a tuition fellowship that reduces their tuition to the in-state rate of an Arkansas resident. This is a 60 percent discount off the out-of-state rate.

International students now pay an international student rate set at twice the in-state rate plus a fixed international student fee. This represents a great reduction from our previous cost for international students.

THE PARLIAMENT OF MAN

The Past, Present, and Future of the United Nations

In The Parliament of Man, the distinguished scholar Paul Kennedy gives a thorough and timely history of the United Nations that explains the institution's roots and functions. The book also casts an objective eye on the UN's effectiveness as a body and on its prospects for success in meeting the challenges that lie ahead.

"An artful study . . . that helps to set the record straight. . . . His assemblage of data is extraordinary." —The New York Times

"Kennedy traces this . . . story with concision, grace, and fairness. Nearly every page contains some delicious morsel . . . reflecting Kennedy's intelligence and deep knowledge of world affairs." —The San Francisco Chronicle

WATCH FOR THIS MAN

INCORRUPTIBLE, WISE, SIMPLE OF SPEECH

❖ He will advocate sharing the world's food and resources more equitably among nations...

Every year millions of people die needlessly from starvation, disease, and war. Millions more struggle to survive on less than $1 a day. As long as this injustice persists, we will never know peace.

❖ He will call for massive emergency relief...

An immediate program to provide basic necessities for the poorest areas of the world—perhaps in the form of a global Marshall Plan—will be the first of many changes needed.

❖ He will turn our attention to the environment...

Pollution is the #1 killer in the world today, and new reports say the consequences of global warming will come sooner and be more catastrophic than expected if we fail to act in time.

❖ With his help we will see that all life is one...

Acting as one human family, we will rebuild our world along more just and compassionate lines, and thus create the only basis for lasting peace.

❖ His public work will soon begin...

As millions worldwide take up his call for peace through sharing, he will acknowledge his role as World Teacher, the one awaited under different names by people of all religions and by those who simply wish for a better life for all—a Teacher for all humanity.

The Advancement of Understanding And Cooperation Among Women

Formed in 1969 and named for Virginia Gildersleeve, noted woman educator and internationalist, the fund to date has more than 300 grants for a total project aid disbursement of over $1.3 million USD to women's groups in 88 low per capita income countries. Priority is given to income generation and community development projects which enhance and utilize women's educational, vocational, and leadership skills. Project activities range from seminars, conferences, and training workshops to community-action projects.

With NGO consultative status at the UN, VGIF has 1,200 members in 40 countries who generously support the Fund's mission with their annual donations and planned or estate gifts. The 29 member volunteer board, broadly international in scope, serves at its own expense.

Southern Illinois University Carbondale

As a Doctoral / Research University- High Research Activity (Carnegie Foundation classification), Southern Illinois University Carbondale ranks among the top 3.8% of U.S. higher education institutions and is the only major research university in the southern half of Illinois. We offer 30 doctoral degrees, including Direct & Accelerated Entry into 17 Ph.D. programs, and over 60 master's degrees, including Concurrent Degree programs and Master's degrees with a Double Major. For a Complete Listing of our degree programs, see https://www.gradapp.siu.edu/online/complete_listing.htm . For more information on our research centers, see <http://www.siu.edu/~ovcr/centers.html> .

SIUC is located in a Midwestern university town (pop. 27,000) 100 miles southeast of St. Louis, Missouri, and 300 miles south of Chicago, Illinois. We offer a beautiful campus (with lake and woods) conducive to study in scenic Southern Illinois, and a wide range of graduate degree programs and opportunities for research. We have over 21,000 students, and over 4,000 graduate students.

SAFETY AT AMUN

AMUN places extreme importance on the safety of our participants and guests. We hope that you have an excellent and fun learning experience while at the Conference, but encourage everyone to consider safety issues in and around the Conference hotels. We also suggest that you follow several common sense rules to keep all participants safe during the conference. These include:

- As a general rule, do not leave the hotel grounds without letting your group know how to find you;
- Always let one of the leaders of your group (faculty, club officer, etc.) know where you are going prior to leaving the area around the hotel (to visit local friends or relatives, etc.);
- Never leave any of the hotels alone after dark; always travel with at least one person that you know;
- Always remove your name tag prior to leaving the hotel so as not to advertise yourself as a “tourist;”
- Help other participants to be safe by encouraging others to not travel outside of the hotel alone;
- Inform one of the leaders of your group immediately if you have a safety concern, or if any emergency situation occurs to you or another participant, regardless of the time;
- Remember that safety should always be more important than avoiding minor embarrassment to you or another person.

Please feel free to contact the AMUN staff at any time during the Conference, day or night, if any emergency or similar event occurs where we can be of assistance. We can be reached in the Ohio Room, located on the second level of the Sheraton Hotel, or find any Secretariat member wearing a blue badge. If an emergency occurs that requires immediate help, you should also feel free to contact hotel security (Dial 0 and ask the operator for “security”) for assistance.

AMUN’s goal is to provide an educational, fun and safe experience for everyone – and we appreciate your help in reaching that goal!

SPECIAL SESSIONS FOR FACULTY ADVISORS

Based on requests from Faculty Advisors (FAs) at previous AMUN Conferences, this year we will feature three sessions intended for and coordinated by FAs at the Conference. The sessions are:

- Faculty Session I: Sunday, 10:00 - 11:00 am: Sharing Best Practices for Model UN Classes.
- Faculty Session II: Monday, 6:30 - 7:30 pm: Sharing Faculty Research: tentative presentations and discussion on the Security Council, Legitimacy in the IAEA and Sex Trafficking Related to Enforcement of UNODC.
- Faculty Session III: Tuesday, 10:00 - 11:00 am: Informal session with the Osgood Center for International Studies: Opportunities for your department or Model UN students.

All three sessions will be held in the Michigan Rooms on the Meeting Room (2nd) Level. These discussions will be led by panelists drawn from our faculty ranks and we hope that all FAs at the Conference will participate. There are no “right” answers to the questions presented in these workshops, but rather a wide range of ways to accomplish our mutual goals and many great ideas that can be shared with others. These sessions are intended to provide a forum for that exchange. AMUN is pleased to provide this opportunity for informative sessions which are specific to faculty interests. We always welcome suggestions for future faculty session topics.
