

American Model United Nations Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

CCPCJ/I/1

| SUBJECT OF RESOLUTION: | Global Initiative to Fight Human Trafficking |
|------------------------|---|
| SUBMITTED TO: | The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice |
| SUBMITTED BY: | Chile,Brazil, Costa Rica, Germany, Moldova, Niger, Nigeria, Sierra Leone, Uganda, Union of the Camoros, United Republic of Tanzania |

The Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

| 1 2 3 | Reaffirming resolutions A.RES.61/180, A.RES.61/144, A.RES.59/166, A.RES. 58/137, |
|----------------------------------|---|
| 4 5 6 | Conviced that victim services ought to have a greater emphasis on the issues of repatriation, healing and job training, |
| 7 8 9 | Concerned with the inexcusable mental and physical harm endured by the victims of human trafficking, |
| 10 11 12 13 | 1. Encourages member states to take greater initiative in the collection or human trafficking data, and requests continued cooperation in the release of this data to the United Nations Global Initiative to Fight Human Trafficking; |
| 13 14 15 16 17 18 | 2. Resolves that a Global Summit on the Repatriation of Victims of Human Trafficking be held in February of 2012 for the purpose of discussing how specific global regions should deal with repatriation. (a) The meeting would be held under the auspices of Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC); |
| 19 20 21 22 23 24 | (b) The meeting would be open to attendance by all members of the General Assembly; (c) The meeting should result in the creation of Report on the Repatriation of Victims of Human Trafficking to be submitted to ECOSOC; (d) The meeting would occur in Geneva, Switzerland; |
| 24 25 26 27 28 | 3. Requests Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs) already in the act of supporting human trafficking victims to widen their efforts to counseling and healing victims; |

| 29 30 31 | 4. Urges developing member states to make international adoption laws more efficient within their own sovereign states; |
|----------------------|--|
| 32 33 34 | 5. Supports a measure by United Nations Children's Fund to establish safe houses for child victims of human trafficking; |
| 35 36 37 38 | 6. Endorses the creation of a toll-free 24-hour international telephone hotline for the purposes of counseling and aiding law enforcement in reporting as well as the recovering of victims; |
| 39 40 | 7. Further endorses that nations raise awareness by printing the hotline's number to their visas and passports; |
| 41 42 43 | 8. Recommends that this hotline utilize existing translating technology; |
| 44 45 46 | 9. Further recommends that this hotline be used for gaining data and providing assistance to victims; |
| 47 48 49 50 | 10. Advises that funds from NGOs active in human trafficking be directed toward the creations of safe house programs modeled after Japan's temporary services of : clothing, food, accommodations, interpretation of native language, medical care, and psychological care; |
| 51 52 53 54 | 11. Further advises that this hotline be utilized over a four year period serving as a pilot program in Canada and Ukraine; |
| 55 56 57 | 12. Resolves that this hotline should be focused in the destination countries that have the infrastructure and resources to support it, with the hope that it may be extended to origin nations; |
| 58 59 60 61 | 13. Requests that nations with similar programs provide logistic and informational support; |
| 62 63 | 14. Proposes that more development programs be created for the purpose of aiding rehabilitation and repatriation of victims of human trafficking. |

Passed, Yes: 23 / No: 5 / Abstain: 2