1 The Economic and Social Council

2

3 Understanding that the purpose of the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC)

4 is to gather, assess and present research to the United Nations General Assembly,

5

6 Concerned with the increase in global drug trafficking, money laundering, illegal

7 exploitation of resources and piracy,

8

9 Understanding the need to gather information pertaining to these illegal activities

10 and their adverse effects on the economies and security of these Non-Self-Governing

11 Territories,

12

13 Keeping in mind that the majority of these Non-Self-Governing Territories are

14 small islands,

15

16 Guided by the declaration on Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and

17 People,

18

19 Welcoming the participation in the capacity of observers from these Non-Self

20 Governing Territories and their parent nations and with their consent,

21

22 1. Calls upon ECOSOC to direct to the Commission on Crime Prevention and

23 Criminal Justice (CCPCJ) to research on drug trafficking, money laundering, illegal

24 exploitation of resources and piracy in the Non-Self-Governing Territories in order to

25 advise the General Assembly of the United Nations;

26

27 2. Further suggests that the CCPCJ use the following as guidelines:

28 (a) Meet with the observers from the Non-Self-Governing Territories to

29 discuss the individual trafficking, money laundering and piracy problems in their

30 respective territories;

31 (b) Communicate and work with the existing ECSOC Commission on
32 Narcotic Drugs;

33 (c) Recommend that the existing regulations within the financial
34 institutions of the Non-Self-Governing Territories be publicized for transparency
35 purposes;

36 (d) Compile the research and present it in the form of a report to ECOSOC
37 in order for the body to suggest a line of action to the General Assembly.
