Lost? We have maps. Maps of the hotel, restaurants, and local places of worship. This program has a map of the hotel but we'll still help you find your committee room. We're nice like that.

We're trying to keep with the times so we now carry swag instead of souvenirs. Examples of the hottest swag are on display and include Badge Holders, AMUN Cups, AMUN Water Bottles (water not included), AMUN Tote Bags (with a catchy new slogan), AMUN Keychains (for keys), UN Videos and the timeless UN Charter. Timeless since 1945 anyway.

We also have the amazingly popular "Got Peace?" T-Shirt. Last year's supply sold out quickly so hurry and get yours while supplies last.

We're located in the West Ballroom Foyer on Level 4 of the Sheraton. Come say "Hello," ask questions, and get something to take home. Please do it or we'll think you're ignoring us...

COLUMBIA | SIPA
School of International and Public Affairs

For more than 60 years, Columbia University's School of International and Public Affairs has been educating professionals who make a difference in the world. Through rigorous social science research and hands-on practice, SIPA's graduates and faculty work to improve social services, advocate for human rights, strengthen markets, protect the environment, and secure peace, in their home communities and around the world. The School draws its strengths from the resources of New York City and Columbia University, and yet has a global reach, with graduates in more than 100 countries.

AMUN Delegation Lottery

A lottery for country assignments for the 2009 AMUN

Conference will be held on Monday, 24 November 2008.

Lottery applications are due to the Executive Office in the Ohio room before 10:00 p.m. on Sunday, 23 November 2008. A non-refundable $50 deposit is required for each country at the time of application and will be applied toward the school's 2009 fees. All schools that enter the lottery will be randomly selected for first choice of country assignments. Schools that register for more than one delegation will be placed in the initial lottery for one delegation, and will be assigned additional delegations following the initial lottery.

Fee discount for all lottery participants!

Any school that registers through the lottery will receive a $5.00 PER DELEGATE DISCOUNT on all delegate fees for the 2009 AMUN Conference. Thus if you bring 5 students or 50, AMUN will take $5.00 off the regular per-delegate fees for each delegate attending. Even if you add additional delegations at a later date, the $5/delegate discount will still apply.
Please note, the dates for next year's AMUN Conference are 21-24 November 2009.
Applications for the 2009 AMUN Lottery and 2009 Available Countries List are available at the Conference Services Desk.

AMUN Representative Dance!

This year's dance theme returns by demand. On Monday Night Join Us For...

BLACK & WHITE

While the theme seems severe we don't care if you come in a formal gown or dressed as a penguin. But if you could pull both off we'd be impressed. The important fact is that you come to the dance instead of sitting in your hotel room and wallowing in misery & loneliness.

10:00 P.M. - 24 November 2008 - Chicago Ballroom VIII-X

Seriously.

Come to the dance or our DJ will cry.
You don't want to make the DJ cry, do you?

Note: Only ONE small bag per person will allowed into the dance!

Credentials must be worn for entry*. Outside guests are not permitted.*

Opportunities from AMUN

Join us at the AMUN Graduate School & Career Expo Monday, November 24th 9:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.. Graduate and law schools, as well as potential employers from around the country will join us for four hours on the Monday of Conference at AMUN's Annual Expo.

We know that many AMUN participants will go on to graduate school, law school or a career in an international field. This Expo is provided as an opportunity for you to meet with recruiters from a wide variety of schools and employers, gather information, and ask questions to help you along with your future application process!

The Expo starts during sessions on Monday morning, and runs into the afternoon break. We encourage you to drop by and visit the Expo participants during breaks in your committees, or at the beginning of the free afternoon.

We hope to see you all there!

We've solved all of these global problems for now, so WHAT WILL AMUN DISCUSS NEXT YEAR??

There's a lot going on in the world. Of the hundreds of issues the United Nations agenda covers each year, AMUN must decide which topics to discuss over the course of one week-end. Would you like to be a part of this decision making process? Do you have a burning issue that you want to recommend for next year's agenda? Would you like the opportunity to review AMUN's preliminary suggestions and provide feedback? Then come to the Committee on the Agenda meeting and contribute your suggestions for topics to be discussed at the 2009 AMUN Conference!

The Committee on the Agenda will meet on Sunday, 23 November at 7:30 p.m. in the Michigan Rooms.

Each school is highly encouraged to send at least one representative to this important meeting.

See you there!

Imagine how

National Model United Nations is the world's largest college-level conference of its kind. We bring together 4,000 students from across the globe to address a wide range of contemporary international issues. Participants leave with the insights needed to become better global citizens and the next generation of international leaders. Students develop an appreciation of differing viewpoints, the frustration of negotiation, the rewards of cooperation, and a broader view of the human side of international relations and diplomacy.

Earn Your Master's Degree in Public Administration (M.P.A.) at Cornell University

Whether you are building a new career or seeking to change professions, Cornell's program offers you unusual depth and breadth, and unparalleled flexibility of study.

The Cornell Institute for Public Affairs (CIPA) offers a two-year program leading to the Master of Public Administration (M.P.A.) degree. The program's interdisciplinary nature is one of its distinguishing features. CIPA students can design individualized plans of study using faculty resources from across the university.

Concentrations

You choose your own course of study—domestic or international—from a broad range of options:

- environmental policy
- finance and fiscal policy
- government, politics, and policy studies
- human rights and social justice
- international development studies
- public and nonprofit management
- science and technology policy
- social policy

TransAtlantic masters program

Study Abroad and Earn a Masters Degree!

Graduates of the TransAtlantic Masters Program (TAM) gain a competitive edge in the global arena because of their knowledge of the policy, politics, and society of the emerging transatlantic market. Students live and study abroad for ¾ of the program, participating directly in programs at world-renowned universities. Graduates have training in the economics, politics, policies, and institutional structures of nations on both sides of the Atlantic and are well equipped to pursue international careers. We now also offer an English-language research track in conjunction with the VU University Amsterdam.

THE UNITED NATIONS
A Concise History
by Christopher D. O'Sullivan

A concise history of the United Nations is presented in two parts. Part One features an original narrative and analysis of historiographical questions, emphasizing the impact of the Cold War on the United Nations, the emergence of a postcolonial Third World bloc, the U.N.'s role in the Middle East and Africa, and the prospects for change and reform in the post-Cold War era. Part Two contains the most significant U.N. resolutions of the last 60 years, including dramatic General Assembly and Security Council debates and memorable addresses.

WATCH FOR THIS MAN

INCORRUPTIBLE, WISE, SIMPLE OF SPEECH

❖ He will advocate sharing the world's food and resources more equitably among nations...

Every year millions of people die needlessly from starvation, disease, and war. Millions more struggle to survive on less than $1 a day. As long as this injustice persists, we will never know peace.

❖ He will call for massive emergency relief...

An immediate program to provide basic necessities for the poorest areas of the world—perhaps in the form of a global Marshall Plan—will be the first of many changes needed.

❖ He will turn our attention to the environment...

Pollution is the #1 killer in the world today, and new reports say the consequences of global warming will come sooner and be more catastrophic than expected if we fail to act in time.

❖ With his help we will see that all life is one...

Acting as one human family, we will rebuild our world along more just and compassionate lines, and thus create the only basis for lasting peace.

❖ His public work will soon begin...

As millions worldwide take up his call for peace through sharing, he will acknowledge his role as World Teacher, the one awaited under different names by people of all religions and by those who simply wish for a better life for all—a Teacher for all humanity.

WHEN SHOULD THE NEEDS OF MANY INFRINGE ON THE RIGHTS OF ONE?

DISCUSS.

As the nation's first museum dedicated to freedom and the First Amendment, the Freedom Museum examines our rights through interactive exploration and thought-provoking exhibits. You'll encounter today's most pressing issues that involve our five First Amendment rights. From censorship issues to groundbreaking movements, the Freedom Museum presents both sides of the story, then challenges you to discuss, debate and ultimately answer one uneasy question: Where will you stand?

Admission is free.

Safety at AMUN

AMUN places extreme importance on the safety of our participants and guests. We hope that you have an excellent and fun learning experience while at the Conference, but encourage everyone to consider safety issues in and around the Conference hotels. We also suggest that you follow several common sense rules to keep all participants safe during the conference. These include:

- As a general rule, do not leave the hotel grounds without letting your group know how to find you;
- Always let one of the leaders of your group (faculty, club officer, etc.) know where you are going prior to leaving the area around the hotel (to visit local friends or relatives, etc.);
- Never leave any of the hotels alone after dark; always travel with at least one person that you know;
- Always remove your name tag prior to leaving the hotel so as not to advertise yourself as a "tourist;"
- Help other participants to be safe by encouraging others to not travel outside of the hotel alone;
- Inform one of the leaders of your group immediately if you have a safety concern, or if any emergency situation occurs to you or another participant, regardless of the time;
- Remember that safety should always be more important than avoiding minor embarrassment to you or another person.

Please feel free to contact the AMUN staff at any time during the Conference, day or night, if any emergency or similar event occurs where we can be of assistance. We can be reached in the Ohio Room, located on the second level of the Sheraton Hotel, or find any Secretariat member wearing a blue badge. If an emergency occurs that requires immediate help, you should also feel free to contact hotel security (dial 0 and ask the operator for "security") for assistance.

AMUN's goal is to provide an educational, fun and safe experience for everyone – and we appreciate your help in reaching that goal!
