SUBJECT OF RESOLUTION: Status of the World Programme of Action for Youth

SUBMITTED TO: The Commission on Social Development

The Commission on Social Development,

1        Noting with regret the various strains that large and increasing populations place
2 on the economies and social welfare of certain developing States,

3
4        Recalling that States have differing stances on types of permissible reproductive
5 rights,

6
7        Recognizing that too large a number of women, young girls and infants perish in 8 childbirth,

9
10       Emphasizing the socio-economic barriers to education young women face as they 11 experience the processes of puberty,

12
13       1. Encourages States to make information on family planning more available to 14 their citizens, including information about:

15       (a) Advantages of the smaller family unit;
16       (b) Socio-cultural benefits of a society when its population is at a sustainable 17 level;

18
19       2. Advises States with disproportionately low representations of young women/girls
20 in primary and secondary education to promote increased attendance by making hygienic
21 and sanitary utilities more accessible to these young women/girls;

22
23       3. Calls upon States to amplify measures to procure pre and postnatal care for 24 women and girls.
