SC/1

SUBJECT OF RESOLUTION: The Situation in Syria and ISIL

SUBMITTED TO: The Security Council

The Security Council,

1 Noting the impact of political instability on the prevalence of global terrorism, as terrorism is not limited to
2 a specific region or religion,

3 Deeply Concerned by recent terrorist threats and attacks in Paris, Beirut, Brussels, Kenya, Nigeria, and
4 Ankara,

5 Recognizing peaceful and sustainable political reforms and processes as the only appropriate long-term
6 solutions to the instability in Syria,

7 Reminding the council of the Six-Point Proposal of the Joint Special Envoy of the United Nations and the 8 League of Arab States,

9 Recognizing the inherent danger of power vacuums created when no significant authority exists,

10 1. Reaffirms the council's support for Syrian national sovereignty and self-determination;

11 2. Calls for the timely and effective implementation of the Geneva communique 522 (2012);

12 3. Also calls on all parties to prioritize the safety of Syrian civilians;

13 4. Recognizes common interest among member nations for promoting greater stability in Syria;

14 5. Encourages negotiations to take place in Luanda, Angola before January 2016 between the Syrian Arab
15 Republic, the permanent members of the Security Council, and a representative from Jordan, such negotiations
16 should specifically focus on:

17 (a) How world powers can cooperate to ensure greater regional stability;

18 (b) How domestic political reforms can lead to a cessation of insurgency;

19 6. Strongly supports the establishment of a constitution or other political framework that ensures political 20 rights for all relevant parties, bearing in mind Syria's national sovereignty;

21 7. Stresses the importance of investing in Syrian infrastructure, the rights and protections of the Syrian
22 civilians and long-term stability;
