7 in promoting human rights and individual freedoms,
8 Keeping in mind the international covenant on economic, social and cultural rights of all people,
9 Bearing in the mind the Sustainable Development Goals,
10 Believing that globalization has the potential to provide benefits to the protection of human rights, but also 11 can infringe on cultural values of marginalized populations,
12 Concerned by the unfair trade practices regarding agriculture and exports,
13 Noting that most human right abuses, especially with reference to globalization, are caused by the activities
14 of business enterprises,
15 Convinced human beings have an innate desire to have full enjoyment on human rights and Member States'
16 job is to protect those rights,
17 Recalling the recommendations included in the report of the Secretary-General to the 72nd Meeting of the 18 General Assembly, especially related to economically motivated migration,
19 Recognizing that many workers choose to migrate for economic reasons,
20 Emphasizing the importance of international cooperation between Member States, including within regions
21 and between origin-states and host-states,
22 Emphasizing the importance of international cooperation between Member States, including within regions
23 and between origin-states and host-states,
24 1. Recommends the implementation of a program whereby nations can request an economic assessment
25 conducted by the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs (UN DESA) to:
26 (a) Determine potential industries with the highest domestic and foreign investment potential based 27 of the factors such as;
28 (i) Gross Domestic Product of a Member State;
29 (ii) Main imports and exports;
30 (iii) Socio-economic conditions in said Member State;
31 (b) Help Member States build guidelines for a crisis management plan in the case of economic or 32 political fallout;

33 (c) Make recommendations on the proper allocation for the budget to build an economic foundation
34 for Member States in need;

35 (d) Ensure they abide by World Trade Organization's (WTO) trade laws;

36 2. Calls for the improvement of existing employment programs in developing Member States to help create 37 economic independence such as:

38 (a) Vocational training in industries like sanitation, transportation and construction;

39 (b) Entrepreneurship and business led by local business owners;

40 (c) Political training led by volunteer individuals from a wide variety of non-governmental organi-
41 zations;

42 3. Reaffirms previous efforts outlawing workforce discrimination, particularly in their efforts to counter the 43 negative byproducts of globalization, including:

44 (a) The Discrimination (Employment and Occupation) Convention of 1958 of the International Labor
45 Organization;

46 (b) The Universal Declaration of Human Rights;
