HSC-1961/4

SUBJECT OF RESOLUTION: The Situation in Latin and South America

SUBMITTED TO: The Historical Security Council – 1961

The Historical Security Council – 1961,

- 1        Recognizing the relatively unstable governmental institutions in various Latin American states,
2        Acknowledging the threat of outside intervention in regional affairs,
3        Reaffirming previous United Nations legislation concerning Latin America and the Caribbean,
4        1. Calls upon United Nations Member States and other international actors to respect the sovereignty of all
5 nations, especially those with tenuous relations in Latin America and the Caribbean;
6        2. Strongly recommends the formation of a third-party advisory committee by the Secretary General to 7 counsel Latin American countries experiencing unstable relations, in order to:
8            (a) Facilitate peace talks;
9            (b) Create a plan for future stability and success while respecting states' sovereignty and values;
10        3. Authorizes the creation of a commission for inquiry that is available to investigate any perceived violations
11 of previous United Nations legislation and United Nations mandates, specifically regarding outside influences in 12 sovereign states.
