11 (a) Basing the Sudan Aid Network in the United Nations Office in Nairobi, Kenya;

12 3. Investigating collaboration with willing, credible international organizations;

13 4. Establishing the Sudan Aid Network acting under the primary goal of delivering humanitarian
14 aid:

15 (a) Humanitarian aid consisting of food, water, sanitation supplies, medicine, and other
16 forms of aid;

17 (b) Delivering aid through approved air, land, and sea ports of entry through third-party
18 international organizations and programs;

19 (c) Recommends that all aid be monitored by the United Nation Office for Project Ser-
20 vices;

21 5. Calling for the delivering of humanitarian aid consisting of clean water, medicine, food, and
22 other forms of humanitarian aid through direct supplies to communities in Sudan through the methods
23 of the following:

24 (a) Having previously selected the United Nations sub-organizations and humanitarian 25 organizations to deliver aid to the areas most affected directly;

26 (b) Sending trucks and similar vehicles straight into communities, directly distributing
27 aid;

28 (c) Directly giving resources to the civilians in the communities;

29 (d) Aid will be sent through the following: the Port of Sudan and the previously closed
30 Chad-Sudanese Border, including the Adre border crossing;

31 6. Prioritizing where aid is delivered with the advice of:

32 (a) Observers of the African Union and the regional experts;
