Historical Security Council – 1990

HSC-1990/IV/1

SUBJECT OF RESOLUTION: The Situation in Iran and Iraq

SUBMITTED TO: The Historical Security Council – 1990

The Historical Security Council – 1990,

1 Recalling Security Council Resolutions 619 (1988) and 642 (1989), creating and extending the United Nations
2 Iran-Iraq Military Observer Group (UNIIMOG),

3 Acknowledging the Secretary-General's call to the Security Council to extend the mandate of UNIIMOG,

4 Reaffirming Security Council Resolutions 582 (1986) and 598 (1987) which addressed the breaches made by 5 both Iran and Iraq in mandated ceasefires,

6 Deeply concerned with the material destruction, immense loss of human life, and the lack of submission to 7 the Security Council's standards for international peace and security,

8 1. Chooses to extend the mandate of UNIIMOG established by Security Council Resolution 619 (1988) by 9 6 months to 25 September 1990;

10 2. Requests that the Secretary General to submit to the Council, by 20 September 1990, a detailed report
11 on the status of UNIIMOG and the situation in Iraq and Iran;

12 3. Stresses the need to continue to work towards maintaining peace and ensuring security and safety for all 13 persons in Iraq and Iran, specifically all persons directly involved in the implementation of this resolution..
