5 mental principle of respecting and protecting civilians,

6 Reaffirming its resolution 2712 (2023) on 15 November 2023,

7 Commending the efforts of several regional and international actors as well as of the Secretary-General of 8 the United Nations to address the protection of civilians and the safe passage of humanitarian aid,

9 Determined to resolve the grave humanitarian situation in the Gaza Strip and to provide for the safe passage
10 of displaced persons,

11 Emphasizing the need for all parties to adhere to their obligations under international human rights laws,

12 1. Authorizes the establishment of safe zones throughout the Gaza Strip to ensure the safety and well-being 13 of civilians affected by the conflict;

14 2. Decides on the deployment in the Gaza Strip, under United Nations patronage, of peacekeeping interna-
15 tional security presences within safe zones, with appropriate equipment and personnel as required, and welcomes the 16 agreement of all parties involved to such presences;

17 3. Requests the Secretary-General to appoint, in consultation with the Security Council, a Special Repre-
18 sentative to control the implementation of the international security presence;

19 4. Authorizes Member States and the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in 20 the Near East (UNRWA) to establish the international security presence in the Gaza Strip;

21 5. Affirms the need for the rapid early deployment of effective international security presences UNRWA to 22 the Gaza Strip, and stresses that the parties cooperate fully in their deployment;

23 6. Decides that the responsibilities of the international security presence to be deployed and acting in the 24 Gaza Strip will include:

25 (a) Deterring hostilities as well as maintaining and where necessary enforcing an armistice within 26 the safe zones;

27 (b) Ensuring the safe passage of displaced civilians relocating to safe zones;

28 (c) Establishing a secure environment which facilitates the safe, continuous, sufficient, and unhin-
29 dered provision of goods and services essential to the well-being of civilians to safe zones through humanitarian 30 corridors, including water, electricity, fuel, food and medical supplies;

31 (d) Supporting, in coordination with United Nations humanitarian agencies and their implementing
32 partners, the International Committee of the Red Cross, and other impartial humanitarian organizations, humani-
33 tarian and disaster relief aid;

34 (e) Overseeing the establishment of medical facilities within safe zones, in cooperation with the Red
35 Cross;
